efficiency of the judiciary that appointments were proposed to be made now and then from the Bar?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—Will the Government be pleased to follow a fixed rule with regard to the recruitment to the judiciary, namely, a certain proportion from the Bar and a certain proportion from the service.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I regret I cannot give an off-hand reply to an important question like this.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to mention the appointments made in the Judiciary from the bar during the last two years?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I want notice.

Pay of the District Superintendents of Police.

186. Mr. P. C. Varkey.—Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) whether Mr. A. R. Mannadi Nayar was posted as the D. S. P. Trichur;

(b) what his permanent pay was when he was so posted;

(c) what his present pay is;

(d) when Mr. A. L. Devassy was posted to act as the D. S. P., Anjikaimal;

(e) what his permanent pay was when he was so posted;

(f) what his present pay is?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—(a) On 23rd Edavam 1107.

(b) He was drawing Rs. 170 as S. P. T. Superintendent, Central Jail.

(c) Rs. 180.

(d) On 20th Kumbham 1107.

(e) Rs. 115 as Prosecuting Inspector.

(f) Rs. 160.

Mr. George Chakyamuri.—(b) It was said here that there was no difference between S. P. T. and permanent. It is stated in sub-division (b) that Mr Mannadiar was drawing Rs. 170 as S. P. T. Superintendent Central Jail. What was his permanent pay when he was appointed as the D. S. P.?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—I think his permanent pay was Rs. 100 as Probationary Inspector.

Mr. Joseph Pettah:—Before Mr. Mannadiar was posted on to the Central Jail, was he drawing a lower pay than Mr. Devassi.

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—I want notice.

Mr. C. A. Ouseph—It was just now said that the permanent pay of Mr. Mannadiar as Probationary Inspector was

Rs. 100 when he was appointed as the D. S. P. It is also stated in (e) that the pay of Mr. Devassy as Prosecuting Inspector was Rs. 115. So am I to take it that at the time when they were appointed as D. S. Ps. Mr. Devassi was drawing a higher pay than Mr Mannadiar? May I know whether these two officers were recruited on the same pay?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—Yes.

Quarters for the Medical Officer of Kozhinjampara.

187. Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(1) whether it was not the knowledge of the difficulties felt by the Medical Officer of Kozhinjampara to get a habitable house that made the Government give him the use of the T. B.;

(2) is there any proposal to build quarters for the Medical Officer there?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—(1) Yes.

(2) Yes (when funds permit).

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Sir, may I know approximately what amount will be required by the Government to build a house for the Medical Officer of Kozhinjampara?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—3 to 4 thousand rupees.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Are the Government not in a position to find out 3 thousand rupees for the use of their own doctor at Kozhinjampara?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—There were other important works necessary for the Medical department which the departmental head brought to the notice of the Government. It was not found possible to allot money for this purpose.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Was this the condition ever since the Kozhinjampara Dispensary was instituted there?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—Yes.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—How many years, please?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—About 10 years.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Am I to take it that during all these 10 years the Government were not able to find out 3 thousand rupees to construct a building?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—There were some other more important works to be attended to.

Dr. A. R. Menon.—Are there not quarters there available for rent?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—It is not a big town.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—Am I to understand that the Government did not find its way to spare this small expense of 3 thousand rupees to Chittur Taluk?
